

Mullens has 4 parks, lighted tennis courts, and a community swimming pool.

Mullens is located within 500 miles of 2/3 of the US population.

Recreation

Located just 10 miles from Twin Falls State Park Resort, one of the most serene state parks in West Virginia, you will have plenty of choices when it comes to camping, hiking, picnicking, golfing, or spending a quiet night at their breathtaking lodge. If you are a hunting or fishing enthusiast, you will fall in love with the trout fishing and trophy buck hunting available in the vast wilderness of southern West Virginia.

Residents of Mullens also enjoy:

- the Hatfield McCoy Trail system;
- two public golf courses nearby;
- live theater;
- live music, including one open mic night and 2 bluegrass music nights each month;
- programs for youth and adults; and
- the Mullens Opportunity Center.

Mullens is located next to the Hatfield-McCoy Trail system, one of the largest and safest off-road vehicle destinations in the country.

THE CITY OF MULLENS

316 Moran Ave
Mullens, WV 25882
Phone - (304) 294-7132
Fax - (304) 294-7224
info@cityofmullens.com
www.cityofmullens.com

City Of Mullens, West Virginia

Welcome to a slow paced, family friendly community located outside of Beckley, West Virginia. Welcome to a town where neighbors know and take care of each other. Welcome to Mullens, West Virginia.

(304) 294-7132
www.cityofmullens.com

Welcome home...

Residents of Mullens have a wonderful place to live, an excellent school system in which to educate their children, and opportunity for volunteering and personal growth.

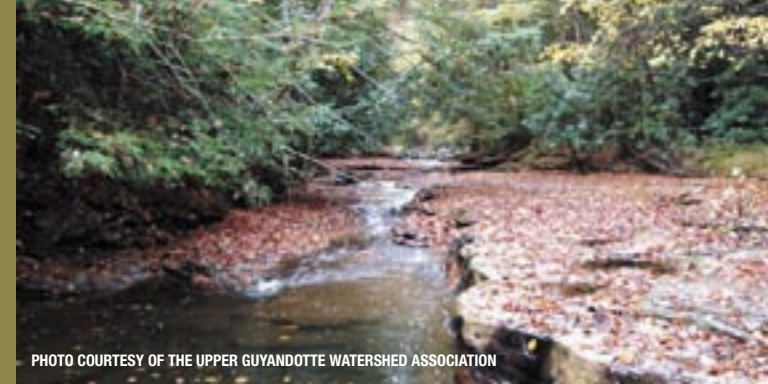

PHOTO COURTESY OF THE UPPER GUYANDOTTE WATERSHED ASSOCIATION

Why live in Mullens?

People are choosing Mullens due to:

- affordable home ownership—median price is $45,000;
- increasing real estate values;
- safety—a nearly nonexistent crime rate;
- strong family values and a diverse church community;
- an award winning school system; and
- close proximity to Beckley and the Federal Prison.

Special programs are available for home purchase and repair.

Call (304) 585-7440 for details.

www.cityofmullens.com/welcome.html

Mullens is one of only ten West Virginia communities selected as a "Blueprint Community." Mullens has completed a strategic plan and many volunteers are working hard to achieve the town's goals. You are invited to join the Blueprint Communities team and be an integral part of the Mullens community.

Mullens offers lots of opportunities to become involved in the community.

Wyoming County

Mullens is located in southern West Virginia, at the junction of highways 10, 16, and 54 where Slab Fork meets the Guyandotte River. Wyoming County is one county east of Kentucky and one county north of Virginia. The surrounding counties are Logan, McDowell, Mercer, Mingo, and Raleigh Counties.

Real Estate

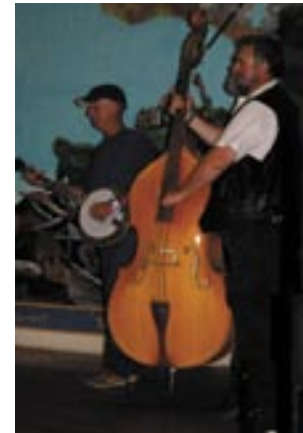

Shopping for residential and commercial properties for sale or rent in Mullens is as easy as calling the Real Estate One Stop Shop or visiting the Mullens website.

One Stop Shop: (304) 294-5094

Website: www.cityofmullens.com

Welcome Spring with the Mullens Dogwood Festival, which includes a carnival, vendors, crafters, car show and live entertainment from entertainers of both local and national fame.

Education plays a vital role in Wyoming County, which is one of only three fully accredited school systems out of 55 school systems in the state.

(304) 294-7132

www.cityofmullens.com